

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

This invention provides a method for manufacture of autograft, allograft and xenograft implants which comprises assembling such implants from smaller pieces of graft

5 materials to form a larger graft implant product.

For review of the entire disclosure, see the full text of the patent application.